ORDER:

In the letter first read above, the Commissioner of Prohibition & Excise, Hyderabad has stated that Sri. S. Ramesh, P&ES (Rtd) in his representation dated 1-2-2010 has submitted that he joined as P&ES, Penukonda, Anantapur dist, (Newly formed) on 1-1-2006 which is a nook & corner place in the state of Andhra Pradesh bordering Karnataka state. He stayed at Penukonda along with his aged and deceased mother and wife. On 21-6-2007 his mother fell down in his house and was injured seriously. He took her to Hindupur and got treatment to her. As her condition was not good, on 26-7-2007 she was taken to Hindupur. The Hospital authorities advised for her admission in the hospital. She was admitted in Govt. General Hospital as an in-patient and underwent treatment upto 31.07.2007. As the condition of his mother was deteriorating day by day and she was very serious, the hospital authorities, Govt. General Hospital, Hindupur, could not provide specialized treatment and advised him to take her to Bangalore immediately as it is near to Hindupur (120 kms approx.).He had to rush up to Bangalore with his mother without any second thought to save her life. In the process, he got her admitted in M.S.Ramaiah Memorial Hospital on 31-7-2007 for saving her life and providing better treatment. As her condition was very serious there was no time and possibility to take her to any recognized hospital in Bangalore or in Hyderabad (600km) in A.P for better treatment on emergency basis.

2. He has also reported that the incident took place when he was working at Penukonda as Prohibition and Excise Superintendent and at the time of his retirement on 31.8.07 she was in the Hospital undergoing treatment and was discharged on 2.10.07 after his retirement only.

3. In the circumstances explained above Sri. S.Ramesh, P&ES (Rtd) has requested the Govt and the Commissioner of Prohibition and Excise to consider sympathetically and sanction the expenditure incurred for his mother's treatment i.e, Rs.3,42,158/-.

4. The Director of Medical Education, Hyderabad has scrutinized the medical bills and indicated the net admissible amount as Rs.67,500/-.

5. Government, after careful examination, hereby sanction an amount of Rs.67,500/- (Rupees Sixty seven thousands five hundred only) to Sri S. Ramesh P&ES (retd) towards reimbursement of the medical expenses incurred by him for treatment of his mother at M.S.Ramaiah Memorial Hospital, Bangalore from 31-07-2007 to 01-10-2007, an un recognized –hospital, in relaxation of relevant APIMA Rules issued in G.O.Ms. No. 175, HM&FW(K1), Dept., Dt: 29-05-1997.

6. The expenditure sanctioned in Para-5 above shall be debited to the relevant Head of Account.

7. The Commissioner of Prohibition & Excise, A.P., Hyderabad shall take further necessary action in the matter, accordingly.

8. The order issued with the concurrence of Finance Department vide their U.O.No. 9040/797/A.2/Exp M&H-1/10,Dt: 16-07-2010.
